Business Structuring

Business structuring is an essential part of our corporate law practice. Our clients get expert strategic legal advice regarding setting up, changing and maintaining their international business and corporate governance structures. We are well-equipped to efficiently and pro-actively implement the advised structures in connection with:

- Incorporation of Dutch legal entities and partnerships, amendments to articles of association and terms of partnerships agreements, and the conversion into different legal entities
- Financial, tax or legal restructurings
- Joint ventures, investments, shareholders agreements
- Financing and debt securities
- Mergers and acquisitions
